A Multitude of Other Responsibilities

The County Commissioners have a wide-ranging list of other responsibilities such as:

- providing workforce and training opportunities
- protecting children and helping families
- protecting the environment
- providing safe drinking water
- promoting recycling
- hearing and ruling on annexations
- providing drainage improvements
- establishing water and sewer districts
- providing for solid waste disposal
- promoting economic development
- providing health and human services
- developing and maintaining infrastructure

The responsibilities of County Commissioners include ensuring county government operates successfully and efficiently. The County Commissioners constitute the chief governing body of the county and are the county authority for taxing, budgeting, appropriating, and purchasing.

Terms of Office

There are three County Commissioners who are each elected to four-year terms of office.

Public Meetings

The Commissioners are required to meet 50 times per year according to the Ohio Revised Code (ORC) 305.06. Regular meetings of the Licking County Board of Commissioners are open to the public. Check www.lcounty.com for dates and times. At each meeting, the board shall transact such business as it considers necessary or required by law.

Each January, the Commissioners meet on or before the second Monday, when they organize, elect a President and appoint a Clerk/Administrator. The President presides at all meetings, and in the absence of the President, the Vice President officiates the meeting.
